—No. 3.—

STATEMENT of the DEBTS due to the INSTITUTION, and whether secured by Bond or otherwise.

THERE are no Debts due to the Governors of the Cork Foundling Hospital, except the following Arrears due on the Annuity and Principal Money under mentioned:—

Alfredson Austin, deceased, many years ago bequeathed an Annuity of £.90 Irish per annum to the Governors of the Institution, and there is due to August 1842, three years' arrear, amounting to £.55. 7. 8. Sarah Maylar, deceased, bequeathed to the late Rev. Dr. Austin a sum of £.400, in trust, to place it at interest, and pay the annual interest to the Governors of the Institution; £.100 of such money was lent at interest to parties who paid it off to the Rev. Dr. Austin, son and executor of the trustee, and it is now lodged in his name in the Cork Savings Bank, the interest being paid to the Governors of the Hospital. The remaining £.300 was lent by the late Dr. Austin to the Corporation of Cork, and is secured by the Corporation Bond. There is due on it two years' interest, to 15th November 1842, being £.27. 13. 10.
